Back-to-School Technology FAQs 2021-22

How do I find my student username/password/email address?

Students returning to George Jenkins High School or coming from another public school in Polk County already have this information. Usernames, passwords, and email addresses have not changed. Students who are new to the district or have forgotten their information will need their login credentials to access Student Portal, ClassLink, and Polk County Public Schools email address.

- Students needing their login information may request it from any of their teachers. Students may also obtain this information at the GJHS Main Office.

How do students access ClassLink?

- 1) Go to www.polkschoolsfl.com. At the top of the page click the 'Students' dropdown menu. In the bottom left of this menu, find the 'Quick Links for Students' Section. Click on 'ClassLink for Students'.
- 2) If you are prompted to enter login credentials, please enter your PCPS issued username and password.
- 3) Once in ClassLink, students will have access to all online district platforms.

What is Schoology?

All online student coursework will be housed in Schoology. Schoology is a learning management system that provides students with access to digital course content. To access Schoology, follow these steps:

- 1) Go to www.polkschoolsfl.com. At the top of the page click the 'Students' dropdown menu. In the bottom left of this menu, find the 'Quick Links for Students' Section. Click on 'ClassLink for Students'.
- 2) If you are prompted to enter log-in credentials, please enter your PCPS issued username and password.
- 3) Once in ClassLink, find and click on the 'Schoology' icon.
- 4) Follow your teacher's directions to find your course content in Schoology.

Students will utilize Schoology regularly in many of their classes and as a resource at home. In the event of student quarantines due to exposure to Covid-19, students will log in to Schoology to access their assignments and communicate with their teachers.
